Medical report on alcohol consumption in canada and his implications,
Canada its implications.

A long-awaited report on canadian alcohol consumption was released on thursday. the report presents a worrying trend, with four out of ten citizens consuming too much alcohol in them diet. That details how people living in cities are more likely to consume more alcohol. The problem, however, appears to be worse in the west of the country. A person living in toronto is likely to consume more alcohol than a person living on the other side of the country. An investigation into the reasons for this difference is also being conducted. The reports findings will be released in february.
